POETRY NIGHT AT THE OPEN MIND CENTER

ROSWELL, GA (July 13, 2009) –The Open Mind Center, Georgia’s premier comprehensive holistic center invites you to its first Open Mind Poetry Night on Saturday July 25th from 7:00pm-9:00pm.

The art of poetry is the freedom of expression through words. A Poetry Night is a time when your art can be presented to the public at large simply for the love of poetry. We are inviting the community to give voice to their poetry or just come by and listen. It’s a great feeling of release putting pen to paper, but to speak your words will give them life. It does not matter if it’s your first or your 100th time, come out and share your gift. We will also have two featured poets.

If you would like to share your poetry, please call 678-243-5074 in advance to find out how the night will be structured.

The Open Mind Center is a locally-owned holistic center in Roswell, Georgia offering classes and services in the areas of massage and reflexology, personal and professional coaching, yoga, wellness, arts & creativity and more. It also houses a meditation room, gift and bookstore, and tearoom.

“The goal of The Open Mind Center is to provide a haven where people can not only relieve their stress but eliminate it,” says owner, Charmaine Taylor. Since its grand opening last year, The Open Mind Center has become a place where the community finds support and a place that helps people navigate life, accomplish their goals, find peace and joy or just maintain a healthy lifestyle. Hosting poetry events is one way The Open Mind Center has chosen to work toward their goal of being a gathering place for the community.

The Open Mind Center is located at 1575 Old Alabama Road, Suite 213 in Roswell, Georgia. Come early and tour the 6,800 square foot facility, meet our practitioners and teachers and peruse our retail area. For more information about The Open Mind Center, please contact Makalani or Charmaine Taylor at (678) 243-5074, or visit www.theopenmindcenter.com.
